

Kim, David, and staff,

April 7, 2003

Sorry it took so long to write, but I've been having so much fun playing better golf I guess I lost track of time.

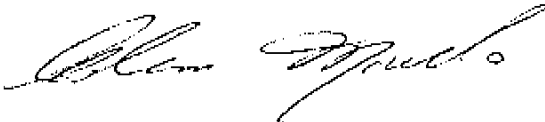

Let me just start by saying that I have been to a few well known "golf schools". American Tour Golf School is not golf "vacation" school. It is a hardcore game improvement school. No cocktail receptions or "cooshy" dinners parties, just hand blistering, body cramping golf improvement. I spoke to David prior to signing up and he assured me that we were going to "work" and work we did! It was just what my game needed.

As a 1 handicap, my game was pretty good, however thanks to Mr. Kim Young, I am ready to take it to the next level. I have worked with several Pro's over the years, none of which compare to Kim. Most of them were "billing" time while working on "their own" game. Kim was genuinely concerned with improving "my" game. His PGA tour experience was also valuable when it came to on course thinking, what to think about, and how to mentally play the game. He was my inspiration when it was 100 degrees and I had blisters on every finger! He was relentless in his desire for me to leave ATGS with the knowledge of the proper golf swing and how to fix it if it were to go astray. Interesting, in a pressure situation now, I think back to conversations I had with Kim and it actually has a calming effect on me. No kidding, it's kind of scary!

My playing partner recently commented that I am 3 shots better since coming back from ATGS, and thanks to Kim, recently shot 2 rounds in the 60's!
ATGS is the best place to really improve your game!

I'm currently negotiating with my wife for a spring tune up at ATGS prior to my State Amateur Tournaments.

Thanks again for the help and I will see you again real soon!

p.s. My garage is now equipped with a "rack" as well as 2 mirrors!
